DETAILED ACTION

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 9/12/2005 has been entered.

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claim 14 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 14 is not understood.

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 1-14, 16-21, 23-26, 30-32, 34-37, 39, 41, 42 and 44 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Petersen.

Art Unit: 3617

Petersen discloses a series of risers coupled about the interior moonpool perimeter of the hull. The risers are laterally inserted into keel guides, and tensioned by winches which allow vertical movement as is known in the art.

Re claim 4, the points face outwardly away from the hull volume, into the moonpool.

Re claim 7, such fails to define over the riser support floats.

Numerous of the method dependent claims recite only structure, and accordingly, such claims will carry no weight.

Re "keel joint", such fails to define any specific structure and/or arrangement so as to define over the buoyant riser support floats.

Re "non-temporarily", as presented, such is intended use as set forth in the preamble, and is accorded no weight in the claims.

Re "for use during everyday ordinary vessel operation", such fails to define any specific structure and/or arrangement so as to define over Petersen.

Re claim 36, the apertures do in fact have a closed periphery in one configuration.

6. Claims 1-5,7-14,16-21,23-26,30-32,34,35 and 44 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Eie.

Eie discloses the field of the invention including risers 13 suspended and supported as claimed. Re "risers", such fails to define any specific structure and/or arrangement so as to define over elements 13 of Eie. The risers are laterally supported below the waterline in cylindrical passages which face outwardly of the hull. Side entry of the risers is permitted as claimed.

Re claim 5, plates 21 present inboard facing surfaces.

Re claim 7, and sliding or contacting surface comprises a "bearing", i.e. a plain bearing.

Re claim 21, cylinders 39 function as springs.

7. Applicant's arguments filed 6/27/2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant's arguments have been addressed within the body of the rejection.

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Horton teaches risers passing through a lower hull.
